Newport – For the second time in three years, the Campbell County Department of Housing has been awarded a grant from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development's Housing Choice Voucher Family Self-Sufficiency Program. The Campbell County Department of Housing will utilize the grant, in the amount of $45,985, to administer its Family Self Sufficiency Program that assists tenants currently receiving rental assistance to improve their circumstances, ultimately achieving a goal of home ownership. The program also provides assistance related to job training, counseling, and job placement.

Campbell County's Family Self Sufficiency Program has achieved much success over the past year. Thus far, six residents have graduated from the program and three have purchased their own homes. Additionally, last year, Campbell County's program was recognized as the Family Self Sufficiency Program of the year in Kentucky.
